Narrative researchers attempt to avoid the objectification of research participants and aim to preserve the complexity of human experience (Josselson, 2006). The rise in autobiographical data (and emergence of autoethnography) has greatly influenced the turn to narrative or critical storytelling.

Arts-based research integrates artistic activities within a research process. For some authors it means that the researcher uses his own artistic expression as means of enquiry, i.e. close to the sense of "artistic knowing".

Education Singing
Through A Culture
Of Marginalization
Social Fiction

Arts- based research,
like autoethnography,
is a controversial
methodology, called to task for its unreliability
and often idiosyncratic
and vague processes (Smith-Shank & Keifer-Boyd, 2007).
