The first-generation Legend, introduced to Japan October 22, 1985, was the first production Honda vehicle to offer only a SOHC V6 engine worldwide. The introduction of the Legend also coincided with the launch of a new dealership sales channel in Japan, called Honda Clio. The Legend was the result of a joint venture with Britain's Austin Rover Group called Project XX that started in November ...

After the second generation "Insight", Honda is active in line-up expansion of hybrid vehicles. Instead of having partnership with other manufacturers as is the trend, Honda has pursued its own route. Apart from car business, Honda is the top in Japan for motorcycles and it has also ventured in humanoid robot and business jet technologies.
