Rani And Sukh by Bali Rai - Penguin Books Australia

The lovers' deaths spark a bitter blood feud between the families, which is to have repercussions years later in contemporary Leicester when Sukh Bains and Rani Sandhu fall in love. Sukh's sister realises that their tragically interlinked past may, almost inexorably, be repeating itself. Rai's snappily written dialogue and stream of consciousness style create a vivid, fast-moving take on the Romeo and Juliet story, exploring the experience of young urban British Asians as they ...
